Finding the Perfect Fit

Summer is quickly approaching which means it is travel season. The perfect time to pop in and check out some of those schools you may be passing by. There is no better way to discover what college/university might be a great fit for you then to see it in person. Here are a few things to look for and questions to ask while on campus. Have fun exploring!

Questions to Ask

- What deadlines should I keep in mind?
- What can you tell me about my major?
- What type of housing is available?
- What is student life like? Sports? Social Activities?
- What kind of academic support is available?
- What advantages can this school offer me?

Things to Look For or Do:

- Take a tour of the campus
- Explore the library, student union, dorms, etc.
- Check-out hot spots in surrounding area
- Connect with students and faculty
- Eat on campus
- Sit in a class
